

with out a law unwanted calling is unstoppable. there are many situations they interfere with especially those that can be life threatening. the elderly, i live and take care of two elderly ladies, are prone to problems and fraud with these calls. it is the easiest way to protect the public, and to prevent fraud. it dosen't interfere with anyones rights and prevents the abuse from unscupulous people although not all are bad it is all too easy to use these venues to perpetrate these crimes and it leaves the choice up to the owner of the phone